

OBITUARY

Dr. Narciva K. Naik, MD(Bom) DGO FCPS, President of the Obstetrical Society of Margao and an active member of FOGSI over 30 years, expired suddenly on 10th March due to Cerebral Thrombosis at his residential home, at Margao at the age of 65. He was the founder of the Margao Obstetric Society.

He belonged to a reputed business family of Kashinath Damodar Naik of Margao. After graduating with MBBS & MD from Sheth G.S. Medical College & KEM Hospital of Bombay University in 1959, he started a Nursing Home in his home town Margao in 1964, which was inaugurated by the late Dr. B.N. Purandare.

He worked in different capacities (i) as Honorary Obstetrician-Gynaecologist of Govt. Civil Hospital, Margao over 17 years, (ii) as Honorary Gynaecological Surgeon and Family Planning Advisor to Cottage Hospitals of Ponda, Curchorem and Vasco over 15 years, (iii) Teacher of Govt. Nursing School of Margao for 15 years.

He was Organising Secretary of the All India Gynaecological Conference held in Margao, Dec. 1969. He was Past-President of I.M.A - Margao Branch.

Apart from his professional achievements, he was associated with many Social and Civic organisations like Rotary, Samaj-Seva-Sangh, Vidya Vikas Mandal, etc. He was the ex-President of B.J.P. - Margao Branch.

We offer sincere condolences to his wife Mrs. Vanita Naik, and his children.

We pray that his soul rests in peace.
